SEC. 18. That the commissioners of said sanatorium shall in no wise be authorized to make requisition upon the State comptroller at any time for a larger amount than may be due for work done or materials furnished at the time said requisition is made.

Wearing Apparel, Feathers, Artificial Flowers, and Cigars—Manufacture—Sanitary Regulation of Establishments. (Chap. 28, Act Mar. 25, 1915)

SECTION 1. That no room or rooms, apartment or apartments in any tenement or dwelling house used for eating or sleeping purposes shall be used for the manufacture for sale in whole or in part of coats, vests, trousers, knee pants, overalls[sic], cloaks, shirts, ladies' waists, purses, feathers, artificial flowers or cigars, and all wearing apparel except by the immediate members of the family living therein.

Every such workshop shall be kept in a cleanly state and shall be subject to the provisions of this act; and each of said articles made, altered, repaired, or finished in any such workshops shall be subject to examination and inspection as hereinafter provided for the purpose of ascertaining whether said articles, or any of them or any part thereof, are in a cleanly condition and free from vermin and any matter of an infectious and contagious nature; and every person so occupying or having control of any workshop aforesaid shall within 14 days from the taking effect of this act, or from the time of beginning of work in any workshop as aforesaid, notify the board of health of the location of such workshops, the nature of the work there carried on, and the number of persons therein employed.

SEC. 2. That if the board of health of any city or said chief inspector or[sic] workshops and factories or his deputies find evidence of infectious or contagious diseases present in any workshop or in goods manufactured, or in the process of manufacture therein, and said board or chief inspector or deputies shall issue such order or orders as the public health may require, the board of health are hereby enjoined to condemn or disinfect all such infectious and contagious articles.

SEC. 3. That whenever it will be reported to said chief inspector of workshops and factories or to the board of health, or to either of them, that coats, vests, trousers, knee pants, overalls, cloaks, skirts, ladies' waists, purses, feathers, artificial flowers, or cigars are being transported to this State, having been previously manufactured in whole or in part under unhealthy conditions, said chief factory inspector or deputies shall examine said goods and the condition of their manufacture, and if upon such examination said goods or any part of them are found to contain vermin or to have been made in improper places, or under unhealthy conditions, he shall make report thereof to the board of health, which board shall thereupon make such order or orders as the public health require; and the board of health are hereby empowered to condemn and disinfect all such articles.

SEC. 4. That the words "manufacturing establishment or factory or workshop" whenever used in this act shall be construed to mean any place where goods or products are manufactured or repaired, cleaned, or sorted in whole or in part, for sale or for wages. Whenever any house, room, or place is used for the purpose of carrying on any process of making, altering, repairing, or finishing, for sale or for wages any coats, vests, trousers, knee pants, overalls, cloaks, shirts, waists, purses, feathers, artificial flowers, or cigars, or any wearing apparel of any kind whatsoever, intended for sale, shall within the meaning of this act be deemed a workshop for the purpose of inspection.

And it shall be the duty of every person, firm, or corporation to keep a complete list of all such workshops[sic] in his or their employ, and such list shall be produced for inspection or on demand by the board of health or any of the officers thereof, or by the chief inspector of workshops and factories or any of his deputies.

SEC. 5. That any firm, person, or corporation who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $100 for each offense.
